The Convivial Hermit is a borderless zine dedicated to unique, dark and weird music and art in the spirit of old fanzines like Hellfrost. If you have heard of Hellfrost, chances are you will also remember a time when bands were not so fixated on chaining themselves to a predefined mold and producing the same unoriginal album over and over again. That's the spirit of Convivial Hermit. It doesn't give a flying airborne fuck about expectations and trends! In issue 10 outside of many articles you will find interviews with Striborg, Lycia, Orplid, Jarl, Convulse, an old chat with Immolation, artist Dan Goldsworthy and 14 others. There are tons of reviews and also original comics and art. All of this is wrapped up in 128 pro-printed pages and includes a compilation CD from the great Chinese label, Pest Productions! So don't be a trendy hipster with your head stuck up the plastic ass of today's recycled corporate culture and order your copy now! Operators are standing by!
